1) Print 12 of these onto medium-thick paper or cardboard.

2) Decorate the 12x5=60 seahorses on the 12 sheets.

3) Decorate all 60 seahorses.

4) Cut out the 12 pentagons as shown above. Don’t cut off the seahorse heads or the empty gray areas!

5) Fold those seahorse heads gently along the light gray lines, and unfold them.

6) Apply glue or paste or double-sided tape to the gray areas. Some glues and pastes work better if you also put glue or paste on the underside of the decorated horseheads, let them dry a little, and then...

7) Press the horse heads of adjacent pentagons onto those glue-covered gray areas.
